PROGRAM LISTINGS

Adult

FEATURED DIRECTOR SERIES

Stanley Kubrick's *2001: A Space Odyssey

with introduction by Kendra Barnes

Rated G

2001: A Space Odyssey is a countdown to tomorrow, a road map to human destiny, a quest for the infinite. It is a dazzling, Academy Award-winning visual achievement, a compelling drama of man vs. machine, a stunning meld of music and motion. It may be the masterpiece of director Stanley Kubrick...and it will likely excite, inspire and enthrall for generations. Kendra Barnes is a Senior Film Programmer with Carbon Arc Cinema. In partnership with Carbon Arc Cinema.

Wed, Jan 4/5:30 PM-8:30 PM

Hench-Kins Guild of Halifax RPG Club

The Hench-Kin's Guild of Halifax is a new club dedicated to tabletop roleplaying games (RPGs), including Dungeons & Dragons, Call of Cthulhu, and many more! These games are fun, social events, and no prior experience is necessary. Everyone 14+ welcome.

Wed, Jan 4/5 PM-8:30 PM

A Global Array of Robots Observing the Ocean

Much of the ocean that covers 75% of our planet is remote and seldom observed. Our ability to detect changes in the ocean -the warming of the water and increases in acidity - is made difficult due to the lack of measurements. In collaboration with satellite observing systems, a global array of robotic sensing platforms is under development to meet this challenge. At present, over 4000 robots are silently probing the ocean depths and sending back critical data on changes in ocean physics, biology, and chemistry. In partnership with the Ocean Frontier Institute.

Thu, Jan 5/6:30 PM

Movie

The Man Who Knew Infinity

Rated PG

The Man Who Knew Infinity is the true story of friendship that forever changed mathematics. In 1913, Srinivasa Ramanujan (Dev Patel), a self-taught Indian mathematics genius, traveled to Trinity College, Cambridge, where over the course of five years, forged a bond with his mentor, the brilliant and eccentric professor, G.H. Hardy (Jeremy Irons), and fought against prejudice to reveal his mathematic genius to the world. This is Ramanujan's story as seen through Hardy's eyes.

Fri, Jan 6/10 AM

Hapkido and Taekwondo Demonstration

First, Master Mike Fournier and his students demonstrate techniques and street defense scenarios in Combat Hapkido, the science of self-defence. Hapkido is suited for anyone of any ability. Next, Master Woo Yong Jung and his students demonstrate the Olympic sport of Taekwondo that showcases high-flying kicks and board breaking. In partnership with East Coast Combat Hapkido Academy and Woo Yong's Tae Kwon Do Academy.

Sat, Jan 7/2 PM

FEATURED DIRECTOR SERIES

Stanley Kubrick's Paths of Glory with introduction by Carsten Knox

Rated 14A

Paths of Glory is among the most powerful antiwar films ever made. Kirk Douglas stars as a French colonel serving in World War I who goes head-to-head with the army's top brass when his men are accused of cowardice after being unable to carry out an impossible mission. This exquisitely photographed dissection of the war machine in all its absurdity and capacity for dehumanization is assembled with its legendary director's customary precision. Carsten Knox is a Film Programmer with Carbon Arc Cinema. In partnership with Carbon Arc Cinema.

Wed, Jan 11/6:30 PM-8:30 PM

JANUARY 2017

Central PROGRAM LISTINGS

Acoustic Song Circle

Budding and experienced musicians, you are invited to join our monthly musical gathering. We welcome all types of acoustic instruments and invite people with all skill levels to share their music with others. Bring copies of songs, including guitar chords, if possible, so that other participants can join in the song. Please bring your own instrument, your singing voice, or just your admiration for good music.

Sat, Jan 14/2 PM

Book Club

Between the World and Me*, by Ta-Nehisi Coates

Written as a letter to the author's teenage son, this is a profound work that pivots from the biggest questions about American history to the most intimate concerns of a father for his son. Coates offers a powerful new framework for understanding our nation's history and current crisis. Americans have built an empire on the idea of "race," a falsehood that damages us all but falls most heavily on the bodies of black women and men.

Sun, Jan 15/3 PM-4 PM

The Classically Hip

A Music Room Performance

Virtuoso musicians violist Philippe Djokic and pianist Lynn Stodola have dedicated their lives to the performance and teaching of classical music in Halifax. In an hour long recital, they will introduce you to the Music Room Chamber Players series by performing works by Fritz Kreisler, Grieg, Saint-Saens, and other composers. In partnership with The Music Room.

Sun, Jan 15/2 PM-3 PM

THE RADICAL IMAGINATION FILM SERIES

Migrant Dreams

Migrant Dreams tells the story of migrant agricultural workers struggling against Canada's Temporary Foreign Worker Program that treats foreign workers as modern-day indentured labourers. It exposes the underbelly of the government program that has built a system designed to empower brokers and growers to exploit, dehumanize, and deceive migrant workers who have virtually no access to support. In partnership with The Radical Imagination Project and Cinema Politica.

Mon, Jan 16/6:30 PM

INTERACTIVE EXERCISE WORKSHOPS

Awareness Through Movement with Jamie Turnbull, Physiotherapist

This week's interactive workshop involves a series of gentle exercises that improve body awareness, increase spinal and joint mobility, and decrease muscle tension and pain. Come and learn how you can gain more control over your body and reverse the loss of movement that affects so many people after an injury or as they age. In partnership with One to One Wellness Centre.

Tue, Jan 17/10 AM-11 AM

In partnership with Canada Business Network Nova Scotia.

Wed, Jan 18/12 PM-1 PM

FEATURED DIRECTOR SERIES

Stanley Kubrick's The Shining with introduction by Mark Palermo

Rated R

Based on the Stephen King novel, Kubrick melds vivid performances, menacing settings, dreamlike tracking shots, and shock after shock into a milestone of the macabre. In a signature role, Jack Nicholson plays Jack Torrance, a writer who has come to the elegant, isolated Overlook Hotel as off-season caretaker with his wife (Shelley Duvall) and son (Danny Lloyd). Torrance has never been there before - or has he? The answer lies in a ghostly time warp of madness and murder. Mark Palermo is a screenwriter and freelance journalist.

Wed, Jan 18/5:30 PM-8:30 PM

FANDOM WEDNESDAYS

Deep Cuts Vinyl Music Club Justin Bieber's *Purpose

Ages 12+

In its second phase, the project is canvassing the province to gather suggestions for an action plan that will support young artists seeking to promote peace and justice in their communities. In partnership with The Michaëlle Jean Foundation, the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, and Youth Art Connection.

Sat, Jan 21/2 PM

FEATURED DIRECTOR SERIES

Room 237: *The Hidden Meanings of Stanley Kubrick's *The Shining with introduction by Chris Campbell

In 1980 Stanley Kubrick released his masterpiece of modern horror, The Shining. Over 30 years later, we are still struggling to understand its hidden meanings. Rodney Ascher's wry and provocative documentary fuses fact and fiction through interviews with both fanatics and scholars, creating a kaleidoscopic deconstruction of Kubrick's still-controversial classic. Chris Campbell is a blogger and member of NSCC Screen Arts faculty.

What would resource extraction and development look like if the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples was implemented in Canada? This panel attempts to answer that question. We'll hear from Indigenous rights advocates and legal experts about what UNDRIP is, how it has been contravened by projects like the Site C dam in BC and the Alton Gas project in Nova Scotia, and processes developed by Indigenous communities to give, or withhold, consent. In partnership with The Council of Canadians and Amnesty International.

Tue, Jan 24/6:30 PM

FEATURED DIRECTOR SERIES

Dr. Strangelove: Or: How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb with introduction by Zack Miller

Rated 14A

A military general triggers a path to nuclear holocaust causing a war room full of politicians and generals to frantically try to stop it. At the year of its release, Dr. Strangelove was nominated for four Academy Awards, including Best Actor (Peter Sellers), Best Screenplay, Best Director, and Best Picture. It stands the test of time today as an absurd vision of war, politics, and bureaucracy that is at once disturbing and hilarious. Zack Miller is a Film Programmer with Carbon Arc Cinema. In partnership with Carbon Arc Cinema.

Wed, Jan 25/6:30 PM-8:30 PM

FANDOM WEDNESDAYS

Stanley Kubrick's Barry Lyndon with introduction by Chris Campbell

Rated G

How does an Irish lad without prospects join the 18th-century English nobility? For Barry Lyndon the answer is: any way he can! His climb to wealth and privilege is the focus of this sumptuous version of Thackeray's novel. In filming this slyly satiric winner of four Oscars, Kubrick found inspiration in the works of the era's painters, such as Hogarth. The result is as a cutting-edge movie that brings a historical period to life like no other film before or since. Chris Campbell is a blogger and member of NSCC Screen Arts faculty.
