SPEND AN HOUR IN THE COMPANY OF AN ADVENTURER

The Last Treasure Hunter

Months before Nova Scotia repealed the controversial NS Treasure Trove Act, Terry Dwyer was issued the last official 'treasure trove license'. Learn how his team located the remains of the privately owned British transport ship Sovereign in one of the most remote and hostile areas of Nova Scotia - St. Paul Island - the infamous "Graveyard of the Gulf" - just as the weather window closed in on them. The Sovereign was reputed to be carrying over 200,000 silver coins at the time it was wrecked near the end of the War of 1812. wreckhunter.ca

National Canadian Film Day

Mabel, Maud, and The McGarrigles

For National Canadian Film Day, The National Film Board of Canada and the Library are celebrating four amazing women - Mabel Robinson, Maude Lewis, Kate McGarrigle, and Anna McGarrigle - by showing three films about their lives. Mabel - Feisty, fiercely independent and firmly rooted in place, 90 year-old Mabel Robinson broke barriers back in the 40s when she became the first woman in Hubbards, Nova Scotia, to launch her own business. Maud - Set against a background of her paintings and the Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, landscapes they depict, this short documentary is a portrait of the life and work of one of Canada's foremost primitive painters, Maud Lewis. Kate and Anna McGarrigle - The sisters enjoy international acclaim - although outside of the mainstream - for their inimitable style, their talent as songwriters, and especially their unassuming, informal personalities.

Manchester by the Sea

Rated R

Lee Chandler is a brooding, irritable loner who works as a handyman for a Boston apartment block. One damp winter day he gets a call summoning him to his hometown, north of the city. His brother's heart has given out suddenly, and he's been named guardian to his 16-year-old nephew. As if losing his only sibling and doubts about raising a teenager weren't enough, his return to the past re-opens an unspeakable tragedy.
