TASTES LIKE HOME

Grazing Your Neighbourhood, Part 1

Wanna get wild with food? Marian Munro, who is the Curator of Botany at the Nova Scotia Museum, is ready to take you on an hour long walk looking at edible wild plants - which you are encouraged to sample freely. The idea of Grazing Your Neighbourhood revolves around the 5 Ps of wildcrafting and what one might expect to find in your local area. The program includes the walk, an introduction to identifying useful and harmful plants, and it ends on a sweet note with wild tea. Supported by the Province of Nova Scotia in partnership with the Department of Communities, Culture, and Heritage.
