Community Charity Event:

Stuff A Shoebox

All ages

Today is the day! We're packing up shoeboxes full of presents and we're sending them into the city to those who need them most this winter. If you haven't already dropped off some good stuff, this is your time to drop in with last minute supplies. You can stay to help stuff boxes and wrap the presents, and we will have warm beverages ready for your family and friends. Good times in good company.

Sat, Dec 16/12 PM-4 PM

Ladies Game Night

Get your board game on!

Join fellow female board game enthusiasts and try something new or play some old favourites. Enjoy the Library's board game collection or bring something from home to play.

Little Tree By the Sea

Ages 4+

Little Tree By the Sea: From Halifax to Boston With Love is a sweet story about the origins of the famous Boston Christmas tree, which is sent yearly as a gift of gratitude to the city that helped Halifax recover after the great explosion of 1917—Boston. This story, by two great talents who have teamed up on their first book project together, honours the 100th anniversary of the Halifax Explosion in an enchanting and gentle way. Presented by Scotiabank.
