Scotian Songwriters Circle

Hear the stories behind the music from some of our top local songwriters.

This acoustic session honours the continuum of storytelling and oral history traditions with African Nova Scotian songwriters sharing their stories and songs, followed by a reception. Guests sharing their stories and songs include Reeny Smith, Deves Matawana and Keonte Beals.

Thu, Feb 22/7 PM-9 PM

A Book in a Day

Ages 7-12

Make a book with us—in one day. The Global Afrikan Congress team will create a children's book in a day with your help, to be published by Fernwood Publishing. After exploring issues of restorative justice for the trans-Atlantic slave trade together in a constructive and interactive way, you can be part of the creation of an ABC book of reparations. Participants will be representative of the African Nova Scotian communities as well as communities at large. Lunch will be included. In partnership with Global Afrikan Congress - NS Chapter.
