LEARN TO GROW FOOD

Container Gardening

Would you like to grow vegetables and herbs, but have limited space? You can get a significant amount of produce from gardens in containers. This lecture will share what type of containers you can use, what soil and plants can be put in them, and how you can look after them. Come out and learn the basics and beyond of container gardening. Everyone is welcome. In partnership with the Atlantic Master Gardeners Association and the Sackville Community Food Garden.

Sat, Apr 7/2:30 PM-3:30 PM

Book Club

Before the Fall*, by Noah Hawley

The stories of ten wealthy victims of a plane crash intertwine with those of a down-on-his-luck painter and a four-year-old boy, the tragedy's only survivors, as odd coincidences surrounding the crash point to a possible conspiracy.

Shake Up Your Vegetable Garden with Niki Jabbour

There is a world of diversity available to food gardeners, if we just take the time to look. Best-selling author Niki Jabbour invites you to shake up your vegetable garden with an intriguing array of food plants from around the world: cucamelons, Indian cucumbers, chickpeas, Italian leaf broccoli, Chinese artichokes, za'atar, and wonderful greens like Tokyo bekana, amaranth, magenta spreen, and molokhia. She'll showcase a wide selection of flavourful and easy-to-grow global vegetables and offer tips on how to grow and eat them.
