

DUCK YOUR FINES BINGO

For youth in grades 7-12

 Update your library record. Go to the customer service desk for help with this.	Read a book for fun this February and tell staff about it. (Fiction, non-fiction, graphic novels and audiobooks all count.)	Read for 10 minutes. Record the title here: _____	Search for a favourite title or author on Discover the library's catalogue.
Read for 10 minutes. Record the title here: _____	Check out the library's online Homework Help service.	Find a book based on a movie or a movie based on a book.	Attend a program at a branch or talk to staff about a program you'd like the library to have.
Google "Halifax Public Libraries Teens Facebook," then like a post or make a comment on a post.	Read for 10 minutes. Record the title here: _____	 Play a game at the library. (Cards, board games, video and online games all count.)	Read a magazine at the library.
Look in the Library Guide and find the name of a teen program.	Say "hi" to a staff person at the information desk. Find out one thing you have in common.	Read for 10 minutes. Record the title here: _____	 Find a book about something you love. (You can check it out using your card if you want to read it.)
Name one e-Book for teens you could borrow from the library.	 Name a book bundle from the HPL teen blog. Hint: search by the tag book bundles	Name one teen booklist on the library's teen website. Hint: check under READ	Read for 10 minutes. Record the title here: _____

You'll earn:

- $5 off your fines for every five squares to a maximum of 20 squares
- a rubber duck for the first five squares you complete
- a second duck for any 15 squares you complete
- IF YOU FILL YOUR CARD – all fines will be completely wiped out (no maximum), plus you'll be entered in a draw for a set of six ducks - you pick the theme

* Note: Duck Your Fines Bingo takes place only in February and applies to existing fines. The program does not apply to fees on lost or damaged items.

- 5 boxes complete
- 10 boxes complete
- 15 boxes complete
- 20 boxes complete
- 25 boxes complete

