

I think in the future the cars that people drive will have no wheels and have trends. Some cars have glass floors which is cool because the car can fly and the people in the car can look down and see the [glass] house and see the people. Some of the people have log cabin.

They had

To cut down the trees to make the house and the roof. At the log cabin kids play video game but the disks are square but if you have a xbox game you can play on a ps4 and ps3. The people who play baseball will use a invisible Bats and the dirt will be marshmallow. And that's what I is in the future
